NEGRO POLITICS IN THE SOUTH.

A Disgraced Colored Man Talks—Tracy's Chagrin—Human Degradation—Blaine's Allment—The Cattle Supply.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, May 3.—The Republicans of Maryland are taking their turn at sulking now. The trouble is due to the potent influence of Senator Gorman. His brother, Calvin Gorman, was appointed inspector of customs during the last administration at the modest compensation of four dollars per day. Not long ago he received a letter informing him that his services would be no longer required, but some influence was brought to bear on Secretary Windom, and he is now about to be re-appointed. This is a disgraceful thing, but Senator Gorman, a cousin of Gorman's and a personal friend of Mr. Windom, has had something to do with the re-appointment. It is not only a disgraceful thing, but it is a violation of the privilege of counting him in as a member of the fifty-first Congress.

NEGRO DOMINATION.

Ex-Governor Lynch, of Mississippi, Explains the Situation in the South.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, May 3.—Hon. John H. Lynch, of Mississippi, the brilliant colored orator, who long represented his district in Congress and is now at the head of the Republican state central committee of Mississippi, said yesterday that he had no fear regarding President Harrison's policy towards the colored man. He had heard the rumor regarding the President's purpose to ignore the blacks that build up a white man's party in the South, but he does not attach much importance to them.

"The President," said he to your correspondent, "will pursue no policy. Every colored man who is a member of the party is a fourth class postoffice has been appointed, and some of them to very good offices, too. The formation of white Republican clubs in the South would be a great deal as any other club. If they were formed by men who voted with the Democrats in the last campaign, but they seem to be made up entirely of former Republicans. The Democrats cannot be caught by such a bait. The formation of the white man's party, to the exclusion of the negro, is an absurdity, and the idea will find its chief support among the negroes who want to keep the party consistently small so that the offices will go around. The southern Democrats of Mississippi do not really fear negro domination on a large scale."

"The negroes are in the majority in the state, and if they controlled the situation they would elect native white Republicans, many of whom are ex-Confederates, to most of the offices. About one-third of the whites in the state are Republicans, and there are a few carpet baggers among them. It is not the fear of negro domination which leads the white Democrats to falsify the return. That is merely a pretense to palliate their offense in the north. Their only object is to keep the state in the Democratic column, and this is shown by the fact that they will not let the negro vote. It means to defeat Harrison, a white man, as they would defeat any local colored candidate."

Blaine's "Plumbago."
(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, May 3.—Secretary Blaine had a glimpse of the sunshine yesterday. The murkiness in his room at the hotel were drawn back and the distinguished patient saw how cheerful the prospect looked outside, even if it were not able to go out. If the weather is favorable the secretary hopes to get the state department in a few days, but he must wait until the weather is favorable to prevent a recurrence of his ailment.

SECRETARY TRACY HUMILIATED.

He Has to Recall Invitations to Witness a Pneumatic Gun Carriage Test.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)
There is considerable quiet talk in naval circles in regard to the failure of the pneumatic gun carriage company to get an opportunity to have a test of their invention; several dates have been fixed, but always some obstacle has arisen to prevent its taking place.

Secretary Tracy, some time ago, issued invitations to a number of distinguished guests, including Secretary Proctor, General Schofield and other army and navy officers, to visit the naval reservation proving ground at Annapolis, Md., on Saturday last to witness a test of the carriage. Invitations were also extended to the military and naval attaches of the different legations. A special train was provided to carry the party out. Twenty-four hours previous to the test the ordnance bureau informed Secretary Tracy that there was no suitable position at the proving ground, and that the trial could not come off. To say that the secretary was mad is but to put it mildly. He was simply furious, and according to one of the naval officers, who was present at the interview, his language towards the ordnance official was decidedly more forcible than elegant. He informed Commodore Sigsbee that he never in all his life had seen a man so mad as the secretary. It was not for the fact that his official train, which he would dismiss him at once. The invitations had to be recalled, and the secretary was not to go. The secretary, who is a suitable powder was on hand, and this what rankled in his bosom, and is still rankling.

AN ANARCHIST CELEBRATION.

The Red Flag of Chicago Prepares to Honor the Haymarket Massacre.

CHICAGO, May 3.—To-morrow will be the third anniversary of the Haymarket riot and the Anarchists of the city propose to give the day observance in the way printed in their address or circular, which has been issued from their secret establishment.

The circular is of an inflammatory character, in that it laments the virtues of the condemned and executed Anarchists, and denounces all of the officers of the law who had anything to do with securing their conviction. It speaks of a meeting to be held on the anniversary of the riot. The suggestion is made that the Anarchists would make some demonstration on the day of the anniversary of the riot.

Chief Hubbard was interviewed concerning the circular this afternoon. He says he hardly thinks it possible that the Anarchists will attempt an outbreak on the day the statue is unveiled. He says every precaution will be taken to secure the safety of life and property on that day.

The Prodigal's Return.
PAYMASTER Smith, of the Essex, Turns Up After An Absence Without Leave.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Henry R. Smith, paymaster of the United States corvette Essex, who disappeared with a sum of money, a portion of the salary of the crew of the vessel, has been found. He is now at his mother's in West Fourteenth street, too ill to give any account of himself, or of the $1,300 which he had when he disappeared. It is learned he went to his mother's house last night, and was found in a partly crazy condition, the result of heavy drinking. That night he tried to commit suicide, but was prevented by his servants, and has since been no further attention on his life. The paymaster's wife arrived here to-day from San Francisco. It is said about Smith's residence that he has had some misadventure with his wife and child, but no further attention here was the cause for his disappearance and rash action.

The British Commissioners are trying the Canadian government to ask the imperial authorities to send a cruiser to Behring sea.
